Application Review:

New Applications:		Project Description
24-14	Peggah Sadeghzadeh / Sonya Evanisko 202 E. Washington Street	Paint a mural on the east facing concrete block wall of the building which reflects the industrial history of that specific part of town.
The applicant is present and describes the proposed mural and addition of large planters. N. Saunders-Meske questions what type of paint will be used. Ms. Evanisko confirms it will be a Sherwin Williams water-based exterior latex paint. Ms. Evanisko also states the planters will be custom-made to reflect the industrial history of the area. T. Mayes states the proposal is consistent with the historic district design guidelines.
Notes:
Motion:
T. Mayes motioned to approve application 24-14 pursuant to page 38 (e) of the historic district design guidelines; R. Bicker seconded the motion, no objections, and the motion passed unanimously.

New Applications:		Project Description
24-17	Derek Gallagher 203 W. High Street	Enclosure of second story deck and ground-level porch underneath to create a 2-story rear addition.
The applicant is not present.
Notes:
Motion:
C. Slater motions to table application 24-17 as no one is present to represent and answer questions. R. Bicker seconds the motion, no objections and the motion passed unanimously.
